PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES AND HAPPENINGS IN TOWN.

Doings of the Various Sets in this City and Its Immediate Vicinity--The Goings and Comings and Other Items of General Interest.

Arthur Lowell is in town visiting relatives.

Chas. LaTorres was a passenger for the metropolis Sunday morning.

Dr. Galvin and brother Mat Galvin were guests at the Beretta home Sunday.

Dr. Bateman was up from Berkeley Saturday and paid this office a pleasant call.

Miss Georgie Andrews spent Thanksgiving at the Gaylord residence in Oakland.

Miss Hickey and John McDonald of San Francisco were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Gohar Sunday.

Harry Bird, who has been visiting here the past two weeks, returned to his Alameda home Tuesday.

Otto von Gildren, the well-known civil engineer of San Francisco, was in town the fore part of the week.

Thos. Johnson of Glen Ellen, local county inspector of fruit trees, paid an official visit to this city last Monday.

Ernest G. Lynch came down from Ukiah the fore part of the week and was the guest of relatives and friends for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Payne (nee Mabel Lowell) are the proud parents of twin boys, recently born at their home in Orono, Washington.

A cement gutter and curbing is being laid by the property owners on Broadway from Cleve's corner to the Dal Poggetto corner, a distance of 1200 feet. The work is being done by P. Basaglia.

Mrs. Rosser and a party of lady friends, who have been taking an auto trip through Alameda County, returned home Monday. Mrs. Rosser drives her new machine like a veteran and was behind the wheel during her entire travels.

Party in Glen Ellen.

On last Saturday evening a party was tendered Miss Norine Dower, a popular girl formerly of Glen Ellen but now residing in Oakland, by a number of her girl and boy friends. The affair took place at the Dower residence, which was handsomely decorated for the occasion. Eighteen young friends of Miss Dower's were present and there was a continual round of fun from start to finish. Some delightful vocal solos by Al Jansen were listened to and Raymond Castex entertained the guests at intervals during the evening with numerous rag time selections. This boy can certainly make the piano talk and his music was greatly appreciated. Misses Ruth Kearns and Ramona Granice also contributed some vocal numbers, and were accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Ruth Burley. Dancing was in full swing up to a late hour, likewise the playing of games.

Refreshments were then served and when the affair broke up all present voted it as being the time of the season. Those present were Misses Georgie Andrews, Ramona Granice, Ruth Kearns, Bernice Ranker, Bernice Monahan, Adele Chauvet, Norine Dower and Mrs. Ruth Burley. Messrs. Ed. Thor, Paul Thompson, Jack Canaveri, Ray Castex, Emery Ranker, Joe Frust, Al Jansen, Harold Weiss and Jim Gottenberg.

MERRY MASKERS HOLD FULL SWAY

The Thanksgiving Eve Fall of the Young Men's Institute a Big Success

The annual Thanksgiving eve ball given in Union Hall last Wednesday, notwithstanding the night was a stormy one, brought out a large crowd of merry makers and was one of the most successful in every way ever held under the auspices of the Young Men's Institute of this city.

The masquerade was a remarkable display of unique and original costumes. About sixty couple were in the grand march, which was viewed by many spectators. The winners of the prizes were as follows:

Best sustained gentleman's character, Mrs. L. H. Green, who represented a scare crow.

Best sustained ladies character, Miss M. Livernash, who sustained the character of "Topsy" to perfection.

Mrs. Green's prize was a three-piece silver ladies toilet set while Miss Livernash's was a silver shaving mug and bowl.

The music by the Pauli-Gottenberg-Hansen orchestra was all that could be desired by the most exacting of Torpischoreans, while mine host Koenig and his good wife looked out for the inner man with a fine supper.

Jack Millerick and Walter Poulsen were the floor managers and they surely kept things a-going.

The hall was beautifully decorated with ferns and red berries, the most striking feature being a large fern emblem with the words "Y. M. I. No. 45. Welcome," inscribed upon it.

It was long past midnight when the merry maskers wended their way homeward declaring the ball one of the most successful given here in years.

Frederickson Committed to the Ukiah State Home

F. O. Frederickson, proprietor of the Sonoma Valley Shoe Hospital on Broadway, who was arrested in this city one day last week on a charge of insanity, was committed to the Ukiah Hospital by Judge Seawell last Tuesday.

The unfortunate man has been conducting a very prosperous shoe repairing business in this city for several years and has always been considered a little erratic. He was a good mechanic and a square dealing business man, however, and his eccentricities were overlooked. Pending his incarceration in the asylum Deputy Sheriff Ryan has been placed in charge of his establishment which is now under lock and key, pending the afflicted man's recovery, if he recovers.

DEATH OF A GOOD CITIZEN

Louis Peterson, the Lumber Merchant of El Verano, Passes Away After a Brief Illness

Louis Peterson, the well-known lumber merchant of El Verano, passed away at the Broadway Sanitarium Monday morning after an illness of five days.

The deceased was stricken suddenly the previous Wednesday with paralysis of the brain and was hastened to the Broadway Sanitarium for medical treatment, but his case was all but hopeless from the very moment he was stricken down.

The indirect cause of death was from an accident which happened to him some ten or twelve years ago, when his head was badly crushed in an accident, which came near proving fatal at the time. He ultimately recovered from the injury, which claimed him years afterward.

His sudden passing was a great shock to his many friends in this valley, followed so soon after the death of his wife some months ago.

Mr. Peterson was a brother-in-law of the Baines brothers of El Verano. He was a native of Sweden and aged 40 years.

The funeral took place from Masonic Hall in this city Wednesday afternoon and was largely attended by relatives and friends. The interment was in Mountain Cemetery.

The Hay Market

Somers & Co. in their weekly hay market report under date of November 25th, report the condition of the hay market as follows:

"Hay arrivals still continue light, the total tonnage for the week ending today amounting to 1745 tons. The recent good rains have prevented the loading of hay in several sections which has helped hold the market in a stable condition, for wet weather is undesirable for the selling or handling of anything in this market."

"The State has been visited by a very generous downpour throughout its entire length and this should be a very encouraging stimulant for trade, for plowing and development work is bound to improve and increase and at the same time holders of hay should now be more in a mood to trade."

"Town trade is quiet, for most consumers are still using their supplies which were taken in during August and September but there is some little movement of hay from San Francisco back into the non-producing sections."

The regular demand from the retailers for choice grades of wheat and tame oat hay is still in evidence but all other grade are moving off slowly.

"The future of the market will be influenced by the temper of the farmers, for no doubt heavy receipts will be reflected in a lower price range whereas scanty receipts will undoubtedly send prices higher."

ANOTHER REFORMER COMES TO GRIEF.

An Anti-Saloon Leaguer and All 'Round General Reformer of Other People's Morals Gets His.

Gilbert L. Baker, capitalist, anti-saloon leaguer and reformer of Oakland, Stanislaus County, who was indicted a short time ago for contributing to the delinquency of Mildred L. Lewis of Occidental, by the very same Grand Jury that indicted Jas. L. Landsborough, editor of the Sonoma Expositor, another reformer, for registering and voting illegally, appeared before Judge Seawell and pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined by his honor $1000, after a motion was made for leniency by one of his attorneys, J. N. Walthal, who stated that in view of the fact that the defendant had entered a plea of guilty had thus saved the county a big expense and had saved the girl the "ignominy or publicly telling of her troubles," leniency should be shown.

Judge Seawell stated that were it not for the present attitude of the girl in the case, he would not consider for a moment the plea of guilty. He stated that the girl positively would not testify against Baker, that she was attempting to shield him in every possible way, and that she would make no move to aid in any prosecution, as she claimed that it was all her own fault.

Judge Seawell stated that he had learned that Baker was a force in moral movements in his home county, that he was a leading spirit in the anti saloon league, and that his conduct was absolutely inexplicable.

Judge Seawell said that there was no possible explanation from either side of the case, unless it might be that Baker was mentally unsound, which was not so. He said that it was one of the strangest cases that had ever come to his notice and he could find no apparent reason for the actions of either party in the case.

VINEBURG NEWS ITEMS

"Easy Jim" Tells in an Interesting Way all About the Week's Happenings in and Around His Section of the Valley.

August Rubke visited the Bay City on Sunday last.

R. H. Shaw of Greenbrae was looking after his property interests on the Hyde tract Sunday.

Mrs. H. J. Kizer on her last visit to Vineburg friends rented her place to John Bobell.

Harry Kizer, who is just as happy as ever, was shaking hands with his many Vineburg friends on Sunday.

Dolph Rubke, our local merchant, seems to be a busy man these days. Go to it, Dolph, that's the way I made my raise.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bundschu of Rhinefarm were passengers on the south-bound train on Friday of last week on a visit to the Bay cities.

Miss Jessie J. I will answer your letter next week I can't locate my fair assistants this week. Must ring off. The lines are down. Good bye.

Clark Gaines of Eldridge and Mrs. George Breitenbach of Sonoma were the guests of their sister, Mrs. Carrie Dependener, on Sunday last.

Arthur Batto and Charles Cutter motored to San Francisco on Monday last and after transacting business returned the same evening. Some going that.

The Groskopf brothers, Chas and Frank, are busily engaged in hauling crushed rock for the Gundlach-Bundschu Wine Co. They sure have the teams to do it.

It is very strange that some of our classy motorcycle riders cannot go through a sixteen-foot gate without taking the gate posts with them. I'm glad I wasn't the lady on the back action.

A. F. Nelson, one of Vineburg's pioneers who helped to make this part of the valley what it is today and who some time ago left here for the northern part of the State for the benefit of his health, returned on Friday last much improved and he looks like a new man. His many friends were glad to welcome him home.

Next Thanksgiving time, any body that wants to win a fine turkey cheap just let them ask mine host Henry Forni of Pleasant Villa. Henry knows all about it.

Fire Chief Gus Rouquie of the Vineburg Fire Department is going to resign his position unless the Box Car Improvement Club repairs his sprinkling pot. How can a man extinguish a fire in a chicken coop without a good apparatus?

Several people on Sunday last, from this vicinity went out to find some red berries and believe me they got plenty. Some one said they were after mushrooms, but two of the young ladies tell me that it is not so and I believe them.

Master Robert Harrison, who went to the city to receive medical attention, has been operated upon and at last accounts was getting along nicely. Robert is a very popular little gentleman. This will be glad news to every one, especially his school mates.

As Al Groskopf, boss teamster for John Batto & Sons, was hauling a load of coal up to Sonoma the other day, a pretty young lady asked him: "Say, mister, is that White Oak Coal?" Al replied, "no, Miss, it is black." Which was right?

Those two gentleman friends of Jessie J's may not be very expert at getting mallards or canvass back ducks, but when it comes to landing Thanksgiving turkeys that's where they shine like the brightest Fay serene, like the solitary diamond in a young lady's engagement ring.

This burg was quite a busy place on last Saturday and Sunday on account of the grand turkey raffle given by Frank Rhode at E. Forni's Pleasant Villa on Saturday and shooting at Adolph Rubke's ranch, Belle Vista, on Sunday. A large number of choice birds were disposed of and both events passed off successfully.

The Coming Grammar School Bond Election.

One of the most important civic propositions ever presented to the voters of the Sonoma School District, embracing this city and quite a scope of adjacent territory, is that of the bond election which has been called for Saturday, December 20th.

That this district needs a new grammar school building and needs it badly every voter in the district will admit. There are no two questions about that. The only difference of opinion appears to be as to the cost. This has been set at $30,000 by the Trustees of the district, Messrs. Thomson, Dresel and Bill, who are too well-known to the people of the district to need encomiums at our hands. They have been elected by the people to look after the interests of our grammar school, and can be depended upon to do so in an honest, capable and economical manner. In accepting the plans for a $30,000 building they have in our opinion acted wisely. They have not only planned for the present but the future as well and to attempt to cut down the cost to a lower figure would in the end mean a loss to the taxpayers of the district in future enlargement, repairs, etc. It is economy in the long run to erect a building in keeping with the growth of this section of the valley, and be through with it and not to be compelled to build again.

The cost of the building will not be a hardship at all to the taxpayers of the district as they have thirty years in which to pay for it. At the outset the building would only impose a burden of 26 1/2 cents on the $100 of valuation and this would be reduced year by year until all the bonds are paid in full.

The only opposition to the proposition comes from some of our citizens, who are favoring a $25,000 bond issue, and just why, we doubt if they can offer a reasonable excuse, except "to keep down taxes." This is a penny-wise-pound-foolish policy and we trust the voters will not be misled by it on election day.

The School Trustees have gone to considerable trouble and expense to present the proposition to the people of their district and should receive the hearty support of the people at the polls.

First—Because a $30,000 building is that proposed gives us a modern school building, which will be a credit to this city.

Second—To vote the proposition down would be to delay an improvement that the present crowded and unsafe condition of the present building demands.

Third—The defeat of this bond proposition would mean a great backset to the district, which is amply wealthy enough to stand the cost.

Fourth—There is so little difference between the cost of a $25,000 and $30,000 building that it is childish to be taken into account at all in a matter of this kind.

Therefore we say, men and women voters, stand up for the civic pride and future greatness of this school district vote for the bonds and you will never cease to regret it.

One Cent Letter Postage

For a number of years the Index-Tribune has been a consistent advocate for a one cent letter postage. It is now our pleasure to announce a new champion for one cent letter postage in the person of Representative Charles L. Bartlett of Georgia, who was instrumental in presenting in congress recently, a bill calling for the lower rate.

Representative Bartlett has been selected by the business interests of the country, now prosecuting the One Cent letter rate campaign, to be their standard-bearer in the house of representatives when the real fight on the proposed measure takes place at the session next winter.

Representative Bartlett has been a member of the house of representatives from Georgia almost continuously since 1882 and during his tenure of office has become unusually familiar with conditions surrounding the Post Office Department. He has taken up the fight for one cent letter postage because he believes that the people of the United States are entitled to a lower rate.

"There are many reasons why I believe in one cent letter postage," declared Representative Bartlett in a statement just issued. "For the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1912, the total expenses of the Post Office Department were over $248,500,000. The total receipts from all classes of mail and money order systems were $246,749,000. Of this first class mail produced about $170,000,000, or over 70 per cent of that furnished by all revenue producing mail—this despite the fact that its weight was only about 1-8 of the total.

"First class mail is carried at the rate of two cents for letters weighing one ounce, and one cent for postal cards, of which there are over one hundred and sixty to the pound. As most letters are light, and average about forty to the pound, with a few post cards. It may be seen that letter mail pays over 84c per pound, which is $1680 per ton. Naturally this rate is immensely profitable to the Government. Last year it paid a net profit of about $70,000,000. During the year ending June 30th, 1912, the department received over $18,750,000 for postal cards, the weight of which was about eleven million pounds.

"It has been demonstrated by Post Office authorities that letters can be carried for one cent, and any rate over one cent, represents clear profit to the Government. As a matter of fact, it is probable that a one cent letter mail rate will pay a handsome profit when it comes into existence.

"In ten years time first class mail has produced net profits of over $600,000,000. Every person who has been writing letters has been paying a tax for the privilege. It is a fundamental principle in the conduct of the postoffice department that it be operated at cost, and that the public be required to pay only such a sum as will probably maintain it. This principle has been violated in the conduct of the Post Office Department in recent years, and it is to bring about this reform that the one cent letter postage is now under way.

"The present campaign is being conducted by the National One Cent Letter Postage Association with headquarters in Cleveland, Ohio. This Association has members in every state in the Union and is backed by many thousands of business men and others who are interested in seeing a just and equitable rate established on first class mail. The sole object is to secure an improvement of conditions, under which first class mail is carried, and there promises to be such an improvement at a very early date, for it is scarcely possible that such an insistent demand can be ignored much longer."

James Smith called on his name sake and townsmen, Thomas Smith last Sunday, at the latter's ranch in the mountains near here. Both are jolly fellows who are always out for a good time.

Don Guy, a well-known builder of this town, met with a bad fall last Wednesday afternoon, which will keep him from his work for some weeks. Dr. Francis was compelled to take twelve stitches in his head. Mr. Guy has many friends in the valley who will be sorry to hear of his mishap.

There was a Thanksgiving party at "Harry Inn" on that day and everyone had a good dinner and a good time. The chef cooked a dinner fit for a king and after partaking of it all adjourned to the hotel parlors where the evening was spent in singing and story telling.

A Splendid Performance.

The performance given in the Don Theatre last Tuesday evening by the California Jubilee Quartet, under the auspices of the Congregational church, was one of the best ever listened to by a Sonoma audience. Every one of the quartet was a soloist and a star. John C. Payne, who is possessed of two voices and a female impersonator of rare ability, electrified the audience with his wonderful voice.

The performance brought out a very select audience of music lovers and was a success in every way.

Local Brevities.

J. M. Allison of Agua Caliente was in town Wednesday morning. City surveyor Thos. Lewis shipped and left last Monday night and dislocated a knee cap. The injury will lay him up for some little time.

The party who took by mistake Mrs. Pauline McMullen's silver-knobbed umbrella from Union Hall on Thanksgiving eve will confer a favor on the owner by leaving it at H. F. Bates' store.

On last Thursday night Nov. 20, 1913, the Basket Ball teams of the Sonoma High and the Sonoma Grammar Schools journeyed over to Petaluma and met the Basket Ball teams of the Petaluma High and the Petaluma Grammar Schools in Dreamland Rink. The Grammar School team played the first game, and although the locals were outwitted 20 pounds to the man, they played a remarkable game and it was not until the last whistle was blown, that the spectators knew who was going to win. There were no individual stars. Everyone played a star. The referees were Page and Weise, both officiating perfectly. Final score 23-27.

After a ten-minute intermission the two High Schools lined up for their game. This was full of "pop" and the passing quicker than in the first game, but the goal shooting on either side was not up to standard. At the end of the first half the score stood 9 to 7 in favor of Petaluma.

The second half started with a fast clip. Sonoma shooting a field goal after two minutes of play, but they could not keep up the spurt and Petaluma gained slowly. The final score was 22 to 12.

Both officials, T. Page of Petaluma and O. Dresel of Sonoma, gave perfect satisfaction. The High School team motored over in the Mission Garage's Cadillac driven by Ray Gottenberg, under the supervision of Prof. M. H. Rowell. Others who took the trip were O. Dresel, H. Weise, J. Cunn, G. Dresel, E. Ranker, H. Waltz and B. Dresel.

In the morning service at 11 a. m. we shall speak on the power of knowledge. It gives a great gift. Everyone who does well must act this. Knowledge is not a mass of separate facts, but is the soul which the facts hold. It is a wing that can bear us to the shrine and flies no other way. Its office is to set men free.

Sonoma Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:30.

Mrs. McAllister leader.

Sunday evening at 7:30. We will talk of Sonoma's great thief. Some people think they are losing nothing, but come and see for yourself. Without your realization you are growing poorer and you may be growing richer if you wake up.

T. M. PRICE, Pastor.

THE SUFFERER.

(A Thanksgiving Poem)

How often o'er my sunlit way,
I've watched the deepening shadows fall
And that impatient longing came,
To fill my heart and still my soul.

How often in the hours of care
I grew discouraged with my life;
Of hopes, which only brought despair,
And toil which seemed but bitter strife.

And then I watched that sufferer's bed,
Sometimes the morning sunlight came;
It lingered o'er his weary head—
And bathed his pale face like a flame.

He always wore that patient smile,
It glimmered bright in spite of pain;
To him it was a weary while
Until the night returned again.

Should I indulge my trifling whims,
And be annoyed by petty pain;
While he must suffer agony
That numbs his very heart and brain.

"O power divine, teach me to give
Of all the joys I have to share;
'Tis given me to nobly live
While he can only suffer there.

O, power above, lest I forget,
While careless down Life's path I stray;
Pray teach me though thru trials I fret
To make each day Thanksgiving day.
